

Wellesley in the North Carolina Piedmont

Alumnae Club Newsletter

Dear Wellesley in the NC Piedmont Alumna,

Useful Web Links:

- Our Wellesley Club Website: WellesleyNC.com
- Our Wellesley Club Blog: WellesleyNC.blogspot.com

Contact Us:

- WCPiedmont@alum.wellesley.edu
- AOL Instant Messenger: WellesleyNC

Next Publication Date:

- June 2008

Inside this issue:

Welcome	1
Cokie Roberts '64 in Raleigh, May 16	1-2
Photos from Ackland Art Museum Tour	2
Upcoming Local Events in North Carolina	2

Hello again! Here is your monthly print newsletter of the Wellesley in the North Carolina Piedmont Alumnae Club.

Cokie Roberts '64 is coming to Raleigh to promote her new book, we have photos from our recent event at the Ackland Art Museum, and our list of local events in North Carolina has been updated. Read below for more information on these and other announcements.

If you have any questions or comments, please feel free to contact me at wellesleync@gmail.com or (585) 305-6304. We look forward to updating you again in a month's time!

Michelle Cheuk '00

Webmaster

Ducks in the Wellesley College Arboretum.

Cokie Roberts '64 in Raleigh, May 16

From Luci Bearon '72:

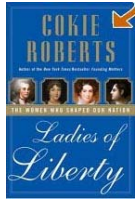

"I thought fellow alumnae would be interested to know about the upcoming visit of Cokie Roberts, Wellesley '64 to Raleigh. The basic info, taken from an NCSU announcement, is below.

The event, open to the public, is at the McKimmon Center, and directions can be obtained at the NCSU website. Quail Ridge Books is on Wade Avenue in the Ridgewood Shopping Center in Raleigh, next to Whole Foods, 919-828-1588.

'The Cokie Roberts Special Reading takes place on Friday, May 16, 2008, 7:00 P.M., at the McKimmon Center, NCSU.

The Friends of the Library and Quail Ridge Books and Music present Cokie Roberts, award-winning correspondent,

The newest book from Cokie Roberts '64.

Cokie Roberts '64 in Raleigh, May 16 (cont.)

political commentator for NPR and ABC News, and author of the national best sellers We Are Our Mother's Daughters, Founding Mothers: The Women Who Raised Our Nation, and the new book Ladies of Liberty, featuring the stories of remarkable women who helped build our nation.

Tickets are $5 each, or attendees may receive one free ticket with the purchase of her new book from Quail Ridge Books and Music. Tickets are free to NC State students (available for pickup at the D. H. Hill Library Circulation Desk; please present campus ID).

The admission ticket also functions as a book-signing-line ticket: the earlier purchased, the earlier your place in line. Cokie Roberts will also personalize and sign her older books. Photography is allowed."

Thank you, Luci!

To switch to electronic newsletters, go to <http://www.wellesleync.com/newsletter>.

Photos from Ackland Art Museum Tour

One of the Wellesley Education Expeditions, "Carolina Creativity: An Art Lover's Springtime Journey," made a stop at UNC's Ackland Art Museum on April 12. Our Wellesley Club joined travelers on this expedition for an informative session.

Christine Huber '69, Assistant Curator for Exhibitions; Carol Gillham '55, Assistant Curator for Collections; and Barbara Matilsky, Curator of Exhibitions, introduced the group to Ackland's three newest pieces and led a private tour.

Thank you to Carol, Christine, and Barbara for sharing their expertise. Thank you also to Jayne Lew and Cy Witt for inviting our Wellesley Club to join the event.

Photos are available on our blog at <http://wellesleync.blogspot.com>.

Restaurant Week in the Triangle
on May 12-18.

Upcoming Local Events in North Carolina

I've posted some new local events in the Triangle area of North Carolina that may be of interest to Wellesley alums — Restaurant Week, stimulating lectures at UNC, science-related events at Morehead Planetarium for both adults and families, LGBT events, and various festivals.

<http://www.wellesleync.com/events/localevents.html>

I would love to include events outside of the Triangle area. Please e-mail me suggestions at wellesleync@gmail.com.

UNC Professor Bart D. Ehrman discusses the problem of suffering as portrayed in the Bible on May 30-31.